

The Penn Catholic has 125 years of legacy on campus. Students find inspiration in St. John Henry Newman's "Heart speaks to heart" in building an authentic community, centered in the Faith and long-lasting friendship. Join our NOVUS freshmen retreat and learn more about our BIG 5: Small groups, Newman Nights, Sunday Mass, Retreats, and Service. Website: newman.upenn.edu
Contact: Nelson Villamor, Campus Minister, vine@newman.upenn.edu

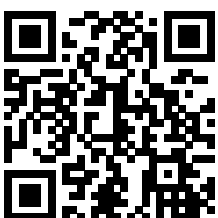

Class of 2024

The Catholic Community welcomes you to Penn

How can faith and reason work together at a secular university? Collegium is a vibrant academic community where students of various faiths form friendships while exploring Catholic thought and the humanities more broadly. Curious? Consider registering for our popular NSO preceptorial, Socrates on College. Registration is limited, so reach out to Emmie Brown asap if you'd like to reserve a spot — or if you'd just like to learn more about Collegium! Website: collegiuminstitute.org
Contact: Emmie Brown, Programming and Operations Coordinator, ebrown@collegiuminstitute.org

COLLEGIUM INSTITUTE for Catholic Thought & Culture

